

2007	SPEECH	PROVIDER	BETTER HEARING & SPEECH
THERAPIST	SCHOOL	PRINCIPAL	RECOGNIZED FOR	SUPERVISOR TO ATTEND
Melissa Toribio-Boughner	CS 211X District 12		Mini Grant: Families First	Gregg Jennings
Xiomara Trujillo	IS 129X District 12	Yvette Beasley	Sponsored a poetry contest and debates on issues of personal goals and diversity and she continues to see the largest caseload of Middle school students contained at one site.	Helena Hawkshawe
Ellen Andrews	PS 71X District 8	Lance Cooper	Led projects on earth day and Better Speech and Hearing month that have produced posters. She has facilitated several Intervisitations to turn key training on speech programs like Story Grammar Marker (SGM) and Funnel Towards Phonics .	Helena Hawkshawe
Tricia Shortt-Ocasio Stacy Bradshaw Shaton Goodwin Keisha Grannum Shante Haskins	P.S. 9K P.S. 11K P.S. 20 / J 113 P.S. 270K P.S. 3K	Ms. Fleteau	Speech Website: Designed and built website http://allaboutspeech.googlepages.com This website can be used by new or experienced speech teachers and as a resource for parents, special educators or staff members. It has valuable information on speech and language therapy, literacy, articulation, and with homework tips and information for school staff.	Angela Carey Adams
Regina Melendez	IS 129K District 32	Sean Walsh	Grant recipient, trip coordinator. Wrote grant to obtain monies to take speech middle school students on trips	Ruth Davis
Andrea Guzman	PS 133K District 13		Mini Grant: A Day with Bonga, Music, and Movement	Angela Carey
Channah Lieberman	PS 145K District 32	Marilyn Torres	CFY Supervisor and Grant Recipient CFY supervisor for past 4 years. Wrote grant to obtain monies to take speech students on trips.	Ruth Davis
Sari Schwartz	PS 164K District 20	Margaret Choy-Shan	Works closely with NYU and the Autism Spectrum Disorder (ADS) program. She has worked closely with school staff and parents, providing strategies and techniques for integrating students diagnosed with autism spectrum disorder into the general education program.	Marianne Casey

Tia L. Walker	PS/MS 306K District 19		Mini Grant: Incorporating Arts into Standards-Based Instruction – The Wizard of Oz	Leslie Anne Caliste
Marisa Gaudio	PS 177K District 21	Mr. Alan Kurland	Designed a Parent workshop for parents within the community. Topic: “Ready to Learn PBS Kids” She educated the parents in using T.V. as a learning tool. She spoke about how to connect their children see onscreen to real life and how they can learn together and have teachable moments. She encouraged the parents to watch T.V> with their child, ask questions, encourage interaction with TV characters (help Barney solve problems, making predictions, using their imagination. She also educated the parents for the program "Barney, It's time for counting". She spoke about how to create a treasure hunt using colors, shapes, grouping objects together and sorting their toys (Categorization)	Judith LaBarbera
Joyce Malave	PS 155M District 4		Mini Grant: Speech & Language Enrichment program: Connecting with Parents	Omani Peterson
Linglih Wang	PS 347M District 1		Mini Grant winner: Preschool Mad Scientist	Beverly Burrowes-Murray
Gay Zacerous	PS 149M District 3		Accepted responsibility for the supervision of Speech and Language Therapists doing their clinical fellowships. Implementation of a workshop entitled: “Partners in Communication- A Workshop for Parents. Disseminated a speech-language newsletter called “Listen Up- Speak Up”, to educate parents and staff about communication and literacy in school-age children and adolescents.	Jorge Gonzalez
Iris Mazarsky	JHS 47	Rebecca Marshall	The Ronald McDonald Charities Foundation- $15,000 grant for new library and 250 Happy meals for the students. Grant from Manhattan Borough President Scott Stringer – Check for over $200,000 dollars for new playground.	Beverly Burrowes-Murray
Vivian Cabollero	JHS 185Q Queens	Valerie Sawinski	Created a unit entitled “Entrepreneurship in the Speech Room”. The students created a startup business, a restaurant.	Michele Jacobson

Christina Phillips and Della Furiano	MS 210 District 27 Queens	Rosalyn Manning	Nominated by Ambassador Jean Kennedy-Smith of VSA Arts in Washington D.C. under the supervision of Dr. Bebe Bernstein (Director of VSA Arts of NYC) to participate in an international project of 102 countries.	Michelle Steinberg
Ana Roldan	PS 182Q District 28		Mini Grant winner: Developing Better Expressive Readers A collaborative approach with special education teachers use of Foundation/Wilson program, Lindamood Lips program and thinking maps (Staff-Development information provided by our Speech Supervisor) use has provided my students to move to the next reading book levels in both their verbal and written expressive skills.	Ira Plotkin
Elaine Bernabe	PS 182Q District 28	Patricia Costa	Developing Expressive Readers: Received a grant to purchase Lindamood LIPS Program. The program was used with mandated and at risk students.	Ira Plotkin
Linda Albert	H 752Q District 75	Lester Katz	Disney American Teacher Award and Grant 2002. The grant/award was given for producing an emergent adolescent literacy program which utilized electronic book based technology and software. Honored by the Disney Corporation and received $2000.00 to purchase equipment.	Madelyn Fink
Josephine Nardone	P 10 @ 304 District 75		Mini Grant winner: Hooked on Books	Victoria Bey
Amaris James	P 140 @ PS/IS 323 District 75		Mini Grant winner: Science Exploration through Hands-On Experiences	Maria Santos
Laila Ellias	PS 372K District 75		Laila Ellias was featured in Sunday April 29, 2007 New York Times Article Great Places to Work. This article featured her work at The Children's School in Brooklyn working with autistic children and celebrating the program and extensive training using PECS to enhance communication. This highlights our professional expertise and skills and represents the "best and the brightest in teaching and providing speech pathology NYC	Sue Forbes

George Castle	P 369K Main District 75	Rudy Giuliani	Part of a group called Assessment Based in Evidence and Law (ABEL) that presentation at ASHA convention on Cultural and Linguistic bias in Assessment. Co-wrote article on the same topic in ASHA Advance magazine.	Suzanne Forbes
Andrea Oliver	PS 77K @ 178 District 75		Mini Grant: Bagel Talk Bagel Talk is a joint action routine performed by students in an autistic program. With adult supervision and necessary assistance, the students run the routine by taking, preparing and delivering orders. The purpose of this program is to enhance communication, pragmatic, reading readiness, ADL, and money recognition skills.	Maria Santos
Ludney Jean-Phillippe Alesia Edmundson-Ross	PS 993 District 75		Mini Grant: Girl's Club to Promote Speech, Language and Communication Skills Alesia and Ludney's grant was "Girls Club". It is a monthly event where the girls have tea, do arts and crafts, painting nails, going to a restaurant to implement manners and appropriate conversation. They promote "Girl Power"	Gina LoGrande
Patricia Angerame Myles Antoine Ericka Barrera Siena Bustos Arlene Francis Yolanda Guzman-Adames Judith Wynter	PS 188X @ PS 34 District 75	Adrienne Edelstein	Service to Parents - Supporting the parents/caregivers from their site with on going parent workshop series. Created a parent new letters and a parent website with important and interesting speech and language resources, materials, books, etc.	Victoria Bey
Dina Rozenbaum	PS 396K District 75	Ms. Arlene Feinberg	Wrote a letter to Newsday after reading one of their newspaper articles about a gentleman who wanted to donate a motorized wheelchair to a child. Newsday forwarded the letter to Mr. Joseph DeVoe, who agreed to donate it to our student Kebon Reddock	Suzanne Forbes
Amelia Katz	Washington Irving High School	Denise DiCarlo	Implemented Pen Pal Writing Project between Washington Irving High School and Richard R. Green High School of Teaching. Project created to further expand student's literacy, writing and pragmatic skills.	Mindy Krotick

Ellen Spund	HS 480 John Adams High School District 27 Queens	Grace Zwillenberg	Self Published –S is for Speech: The ABC of Speech and Language Therapy	Angela Stone
Gail Small	HS 414 Columbus High School Bronx	Lisa Fuentes	Created integrated theater arts program in collaboration with the Roundabout Theatre and their Page to Stage Residency program with theatre artists.	Greg Jennings
Jerry Perez	Grand Street Campus H.S.		Communication Disorders and the Use of Technological Resources Incorporating the curriculum (Info on the Web and Hard Bound Manual) specifically for high school students. This information was presented to all of the speech teachers in the region to share the curriculum that will be utilized on the high school level. This was both a power point presentation and a hard copy of materials was given as a resource for each of the speech teachers.	Kathleen King
Deborah Reynolds	Automotive H.S			Kathleen King
Theresa Otto	Grand Street Campus H.S.			Kathleen King
Jim Moylan	Grand Street Campus H.S.			Kathleen King
John O’Connor	Boys & Girls H.S.			Angela Carey Adams
Kathryn Stanley Diane Fein	Boys & Girls H.S. Westinghouse HS			Angela Carey Adams Angela Carey Adams
Karen Gibilaro	New Utrecht High School	Dr. Howard Lucks	Served as mentor and peer advisor for speech therapists. Has provided professional development activities that demonstrate strategies and techniques to help the adolescent student achieve success in school as well as the workspace.	Marianne Casey
Melissa Golden	Richard R. Green High School of Teaching	Isabel Dimola	Implemented Pen Pal Writing Project between Richard R. Green High School of Teaching and Washington Irving High School. Project created to further expand student’s literacy, writing and pragmatic skills.	Mindy Krotick
Nathaniel Wight	HS 600X Alfred E. Smith H.S.	Rene Cassanova	Received grant for returned Peace Corps Volunteers who attended Teacher’s College, Columbia University. He used the grant to expand student’s reading comprehension of poetry, written expression and vocabulary using the book, The Rose that Grew from Concrete by Tupac Amar Shakur	Mindy Krotick

Patricia Baskin-Bey	Murry Bergtraum High School	Barbara Esmilla	Organized the Scholastic Book Fair for the past 9 years and is an advisor for the National Honor Society. Mini Grant: They have partnered with the Parks Department to assist them in gathering information to renovate James Madison Plaza across the street from the school and police Plaza. Twice a year the students along with the Speech students participate in "It's My Park Day" held every October and May. They come to school on a Saturday morning and paint benches, plant flowers/bulbs, and clean the park. Students from Murry Bergtraum High School were honored January 31st by the Parks Department Commissioner Adrian Benepe at the Partnership for Parks Award Luncheon for their efforts in improving James Madison Plaza in lower Manhattan. In 2004 Murry Bergtraum's Penny Harvest students earned a $1,000 Philanthropy Roundtable, which they named "Communities United." After studying community problems and determining which organizations could best alleviate those problems, the students chose to make $900 in grants to local community organizations, as well as complete a $100 Neighborhood Service project.	Mindy Krotick
-----------------------------------	------------------------------------	------------------------	---	----------------------

STUDENT NAME	TEACHER NAME	SCHOOL	GRADE
Victor Canales	Mariya Raykis	PS 771K @ IS 598K
Alessandro Castillo	Melissa Ernst	PS 38K	Kindergarten
TyRayea Hall	Tzipora Sacks	PS 161	Grade 3
Toselfy Henriquez	Jordanna Ellisberg	PS 152M	Grade 2
Keana Hoyte	Danis Garnes	MS 587K	Grade 7
Angelica Lopez	Jaclynn Castaneda	PS 81Q	Grade 5
Amanda Martinez	Gay Zacerous & Audrey Diamond	PS 149	Grade 2
Isabelle Orlando	Linda Lakritz	PS 199M	Elementary
Margarita Staton	Shari Miller	IS 281K	Grade 7
Gabriela Veloz	Rosa Ann Mascia	PS 81Q	Grade 5
Sharneka Wright	Dionne Spencer	High School of Art & Design	High School