

Fall 2017

30-Hour Professional Development Class for Initial Licensing and License Renewal

Designed to help providers fulfill the 30-hour professional development requirement for initial licensing and license renewal, our 30-hour professional development course covers all nine topics mandated by the state and federal government for providers to receive or renew a license. These five days cover everything from recognizing the signs of child abuse to meeting the nutritional needs of young children to learning about child development. You must register for the entire 5-course session. Registration fees are non-refundable and non-transferrable.
