A Year in Song
A Workshop by Michael and Jill Gallina

Saturday, September 13, 2008

8:30 AM – 1:00 PM

at

UFT Headquarters - 52 Broadway in Manhattan

(one block south of Wall St.)

A multitude of music for the whole year! Plan your entire year of music with this presentation of selections for holidays, special events, and commemorative occasions. Rhythm activities, partner songs, musicals plays, and classic chorals are among the exciting selections featured in this session. Programming ideas and performance tips accompany each selection.

Dr. Michael and Jill Gallina have achieved national prominence as the country's foremost composers of musical plays and choral music for youth in elementary, middle, junior and senior high schools. Their clever creations in story and song have consistently won awards from the Parents Choice Foundation, American Library Service and ASCAP. The Gallinas are inspiring teachers all across the English speaking world with their music and educator workshops. Their chorals have sold millions of copies and their musical plays have thousands of performances across the globe each year. They are educating, enlightening, and engaging youth of today with their consummate talents and creativity.

A Continental breakfast will be served at 8:30 AM

Free packets of music will be distributed to attendees.

There is a $15 registration fee.

($10 for MEANYC members).

Space is limited - so please register by Friday, September 5, 2008.
