Friday, September 19, 2008 • 4:15-6:30pm

Program

4:15 - Meet and Greet in the Lobby with a brief introduction to staff

4:25 – Museum introduction and using the Museum as a tool

4:30 – 5:25 Guided Tour: How Contemporary Artists Respond to Social issues.

(This can be a model to ask your students to create images based on their concerns)

Ayman Ramadan, artist in the Antikhana exhibition. will discuss connections between the neighborhood inhabitants of Antikhana, their social concerns and local contemporary artists. The artists look at the neighborhood as a symbol, a microcosm of Egyptian society with its inherent contradictions. They act consciously as mediators between the obvious and subliminal perceptions of more profound social meanings.

5:30 -5:45 Using the Visual Inquiry Methodology

5:50 – 6:30 Hands on art making, using the art work as ideas for generating work for students.
Curriculum materials will be available.
