ANTI-BULLYING RESOURCE GUIDE

Be BRAVE Against Bullying is the United Federation of Teachers' initiative to help combat bullying in our schools. BRAVE stands for Building Respect, Acceptance and Voice through Education. This comprehensive effort provides parents, educators and students with the tools, knowledge and support to be proactive in confronting and stopping bullying. BRAVE builds on the NYC Department of Education's Respect for All campaign.

This guide is intended to provide you with online and local resources that offer information, lessons and presentations on bullying and bullying-related topics. Many more anti-bullying advocates exist in and around New York City than can be listed in the guide and this list is not comprehensive. For more information about BRAVE and for links to additional resources visit www.uft.org/BRAVE.
