

Occupational Medicine

About this service

Northwell Occupational Medicine is a center designed for the prevention, diagnosis and treatment of occupational and environmental illnesses and injuries. Our doctors are internationally recognized in the field of occupational medicine with more than 60 years of combined experience.

Northwell Occupational Medicine specialists are consultants for doctors and patients dealing with exposures to:

- Work-related hazards
 - Asbestos, silica and other chemicals (pesticides, solvents, etc)
 - Mold and other indoor air quality concerns
 - Heavy Metals (lead, mercury, cobalt, etc)
 - Repetitive stress (resulting in carpal tunnel syndrome, tendonitis, etc.)

Some of the services available to NYC and Long Island's workers include:

- Diagnosis and treatment of work related conditions
 - Assistance with Worker's Compensation
 - Communication with attorneys, employers and claims managers
 - Return to work evaluations
 - Ergonomic assessments
 - Hearing conservation and noise exposure evaluation
 - Disability assessments

We accept all insurances including workers' compensation, no fault and Medicare/Medicaid. We offer assistance in applying for medical coverage plans, as well as options for people who are uninsured.

As per the NYS law, eligible workers may choose to go to any health care provider that is authorized by the Workers' Compensation Board to treat workers' compensation patients.
