BALLOTING

Balloting will be conducted by the American Arbitration Association.

The ballots will be mailed on Friday, April 8, 2022. Ballots will be counted on Tuesday, May 10, 2022. In the event of a candidate's disqualification, resignation or death, the caucus Committee on Vacancies may make a substitution within three business days following the close of nominations. Petitions for the substituted candidates must have been collected during the regular petition period. To take advantage of this provision, the caucus must file with the UFT Election Committee a statement designating members of the Committee on Vacancies by Wed., Jan. 19, 2022, to be announced in the New York Teacher. In no event may the number of candidates exceed the number of candidates for whom petitions were filed at the deadline for filing petitions.

Slate Voting

A minimum of 40 candidates for officer and executive board is required for a slate designation.

CAMPAIGN

Chapter leader lists will be made available to candidates upon payment of $10. The UFT will arrange to purchase space from the New York Teacher for election issues in the Feb. 17 paper and the Apr. 14 paper. Camera-ready copy must be submitted to the New York Teacher by Tues. Jan. 25, 2022.

Notice of the election will be sent to each chapter leader for posting and will be carried in the Dec. 16 and Feb. 17 issues of the New York Teacher. The Board of Education policy is to allow "rival factions" within the union "to disseminate non-inflammatory election material in employee mailboxes." (BOE Jan. 18, 2001 memo). *

Changes in dates and procedures will be forwarded to the schools and will be announced in the New York Teacher.

*Memo available on UFT website.
