

THE PHILADELPHIA MUSEUM OF ART-- July 27, 2019

The UFT Social & Recreational Committee invites you to join members, friends, family and retirees to spend Saturday, July 27th in historic Philadelphia viewing The Impressionist's Eye. This exhibit examines the artists who created the movement in various media. Following the self-guided exhibit tour, you will have time to view this world-class museum's permanent collection including a special exhibit, Yoshitoshi—the last great master of Japanese woodblock prints in the 1800s, before we leave for our Positano Coast dinner.

Your UFT package of $105 (add $1 for handling) includes: Round trip motor coach, driver's gratuity, admission to museum, both exhibits and dinner.

Please make check payable to UFT/Philly Museum; include $1 for handling.

We are limited to 48 participants. DEPART: UFT Headquarters at 52 Broadway, near Wall Street, Manhattan, promptly at 9 am. RETURN: Manhattan at 7:30 pm, depending on traffic conditions.

There are no refunds unless the trip is cancelled by the UFT.
