

2019 CCP Awards Ceremony

Nominee Criteria & Eligibility

Eligibility: Nominees must be UFT providers who are members in good standing. A network provider who is subcontracted to a network must have a membership card on file. Nominees must be nominated by providers who are members in good standing.

Criteria: In order to be considered for a Provider Appreciation Award the applicant must offer high quality daycare program, demonstrate necessary competencies related to early childhood education, perform duties related to daily childcare services, and

- Must be in regulatory compliance and not have any violations within the past two years
- Demonstrate a level of high quality childcare services that is remarkable and evident in day to day operations
- Have a positive effect on children and families in their program
- Be recognized by peers, daycare families, staff and others as a committed, dedicated early childcare educator
- Exercise concern and civic mindedness toward community issues and or issues related to childcare in New York city
- Exhibit ethics and morals that reflect good character
- Motivate and inspire people to accomplish more than they would have normally

Achieve success in two or more areas below:

- ✓ Public service, contribution and or community involvement
- ✓ Leadership, citizenship, mentorship
- ✓ Union activism
- ✓ Early Childhood Education Mastery
- ✓ Business Success & Entrepreneurship

Rules for contested matters:

1. Nominees must be union members in good standing for a minimum of 1 year preceding the award ceremony.
2. Nominees cannot have any current violations in corrected status.
3. Honorees will be honored only once within a 3 year period with the exception of current executive board members.
4. The committee will make decisions regarding alternate nominees.
5. The committee will make decisions to ensure nominee diversity to reflect the membership.
6. The committee has decided to not issue letters to those who were not selected by the committee; the committee will only notify those who were selected.
7. The committee has determined that the honoree will be provided 6 complimentary tickets.